MULFORD, RACING DRIVER, HERE TO TRY FOR RECORDS

OFFICIALS OF THE A. A. ASSOCIATION ARRIVE NEXT WEEK

NOTED SPEEDER WILL ENDEAVOR TO CREATE NEW STOCK CAR RECORDS ON FAMOUS DAYTONA BEACH.

Ralph E. Mulford, of Detroit, Mich., widely known as an automobile racing driver, arrived in Daytona, Friday night, and is a guest at the Despland hotel. Mr. Mulford is accompanied by Mrs. Mulford and was with him his mechanicians, Messrs. Kuhn and Fritsch.

Mr. Mulford, who won his first race at Indianapolis several years ago, has taken part in a number of great racing events in the past few years. He is here now to try for speed records on Daytona Beach for the Hudson company, having brought to Daytona two Hudson cars, one the regular sedan and the other also a runabout, geared up for racing purposes. Both are regular stock cars.

Mr. Mulford had been at Atlantic Beach before coming to Daytona, but it is desired to establish the records on Daytona's famous racing beach, under the auspices of the A. A. A., several officials of which will come to Daytona next week, as will also Mr. Wagner, the official timer.

Mr. Mulford, as he was hauling for the beach in his car, when seen by a representative of The News, stated that he would probably make the speed trials the latter part of next week, but that he would be on the beach with his cars every day. The fastest is in the garage of the Daytona Auto Supply company, but Mr. Mulford expects to arrange to store the cars at Seabreeze or Daytona Beach. Mr. Mulford and party will be here for about ten days.

EVANGELIST, ORATOR AND NATIONAL ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE SPEAKER, TO APPEAR AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH MONDAY.

Rev. Sam W. Small, evangelist and National Anti-Saloon League speaker, will deliver an address at the First Baptist church at 7:45 o'clock next Monday evening. There will be no charge for admission and the public is cordially invited to be present.

Dr. Small is one of the best known public speakers in the country and a cogitrating orator who holds the interest of his audience through every minute of his address. He has the gift of being able to mingle humor with earnestness in just the right proportion to keep his hearers from tiring of the more solid facts presented, and he is a strong force in the prohibition cause.

Dr. Small's appearance at the First Baptist church next Monday evening presents an opportunity to the rank and file of Daytona and vicinity to hear an address by an able guest speaker on a subject of national interest.

VILLA EVADES U. S. TRAP; LEAVES 200 TROOPS FACE AM'NS

PERSHING SENDS CAVALRY DETACHMENT TO CUT OFF RETREAT OF OUTLAW—INVADING COLUMN DEEP IN MEXICO.

EL PASO, March 25.—The bandit murderer Villa, sought by 12,000 American and Carranza troops in the greatest man-hunt on record, is reported to have escaped from the trap and fled into the Sierra Madre mountains through the pass at the southern end of the Rio de Santa Maria valley.

Villa abandoned 200 of his followers to their fate at El Paso and took only his chosen body guard with him in his final dash for liberty. In a desperate attempt to head off the outlaw chieftain before he can reach the wooded canyons and heights northwest of Guerrero, General Pershing has sent a strong detachment of cavalry toward Tomochichi.

The district in which Villa is now making his way is over 200 miles from the main American base of supplies at Columbus. It is understood the United States troops have not so far lost a single man on Mexican soil.

CARRANZA GENERALS CONSIDER SENDING MEXICAN TROOPS IN TO UNITED STATES AFTER RAIDER BAND.

SAN ANTONIO, March 25.—General Funston this morning is without advices concerning the reported battle at El Paso ranch yesterday, or the alleged killing of three Americans on Gibson's ranch situated near the New Mexico border.

The howling northerly storm still kept the wireless out of commission this morning despite every effort on the part of military authorities to establish communication with the troops at the front. General Funston made the statement about 11 o'clock that he hoped to hear something definite before nightfall.

May Send Expedition Into U. S.

EL PASO, March 25.—It is stated that the Carranza commanders are seriously considering sending an expedition comprised of Mexican troops across the international border and into the United States territory to capture a band of cattle thieves believed to be operating in the neighborhood of Presidio.

SAN ANTONIO, March 25.—Following the appearance of several bands of raiders along the border, General Funston issued an order to have the patrol strengthened the entire length of the international line.

ROAD CONTRACTS OF DAYTONA DISTRICT TO BE LET MONDAY

COMMISSIONERS HAVE BEEN IN DAILY SESSION ALL WEEK WORKING OUT SPECIFICATIONS AND BIDS ON CONSTRUCTION.

Seventeen bids were submitted to the board of county commissioners Friday afternoon for the DeLand road district bond issue of $250,000. The bonds were sold to Bulger, Mosier & Williams for $271,850 and accrued interest, or at a premium of $21,850, the best road district bond sale ever consummated in Florida.

The bids ranged in premium from $5,000 upwards, the successful bid being the highest one submitted.

The only local bid submitted was by Michael Shultz, of Daytona. His bid was a premium of $18,627.40.

Another bid of a premium of $20,000 was submitted on the issue.

Daytona Contracts to Be Awarded Local Contracts Be Awarded Monday.

The commissioners had hoped to have the various bids on the construction of the hard surface roads in the Daytona district tabulated and in shape today so as to award contracts but the tabulation has taken more time than anticipated and it is certain now that the contracts will not be awarded before Monday at the earliest.

DeLand Construction Bids Opened.

Bids for the construction of the roads in the DeLand district will be opened by the county commissioners this afternoon. Several days will be required to tabulate the bids after being opened, consequently it is unlikely that the DeLand contracts will be awarded until late next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bisch, of Springfield, Ill., guests at the New Cabbia hotel for a number of seasons, departed yesterday afternoon on their return north after their usual sojourn here.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Cost of living in Canada is steadily soaring according to consular agents' reports to the Commerce Department.

Statistics covering the past year showed that foods jumped in price, and a very steep advance was recorded in materials, chiefly metals and chemicals. "THE PRINCE AND THE PAUPER" AT THE CRESCENT THEATER MONDAY

The presentation on the screen of "The Prince and the Pauper," the foremost work of America's greatest humorist, Mark Twain, and the first of his beloved tales to be picturized, represents another decisive triumph for the Famous Players Film Company. In the superb five-part photo-adaptation of this celebrated and fascinating romance, Marguerite Clark stars in the dual-title role, in which her remarkable interpretation of the contrasting characters will rank with the few greatest histrionic feats of the screen. Faithfully preserving the delicious satire, the thrilling romance and the beautiful sentiments of Mark Twain's immortal tale, the production delineates with astonishing realism the adventures of the weary little prince who longed to play beggar for a day, and of the ambitious little beggar who yearned to be a prince, both of whom, through their remarkable resemblance to each other, suddenly find heart's desires gratified in a totally unexpected and intensely dramatic manner. After many stirring complications, with shattered illusions, each longs to return to his former and natural mode of existence, a transition which is effected in the further development of the story.

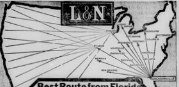

"D'ARTAGNAN" AT THE CRYSTAL MONDAY

"D'Artagnan," the Ince-Triangle play, tells the story of D'Artagnan (Orrin Johnson), a fiery youth from the provinces, who joins the King's Musketeers. He has three staunch friends in this company, Porthos, Athos and Aramis.

The Queen (Dorothy Dalton) has an admirer in Cardinal Richelieu, but she incurs his deadly enmity. He finds through his spies that that the Queen has given two studs from a diamond necklace to the Duke of Buckingham. Thinking to ruin the reputation of the Queen, the Cardinal requests the King to ask his consort to wear the necklace at the next great ball. D'Artagnan hears of the Queen's predicament. His offer to go get the diamond studs is accepted. After numerous fights with the partisans of the Cardinal, D'Artagnan restores the studs to the Queen. She is able to appear before the King with the complete necklace. The Cardinal sees that he has been foiled and gracefully hands over the two studs that he had obtained through an emissary, Miladi.

RAILROAD CAMP HELD UP BY BANDITS; LATER CAPTURED IN DAYTONA

CHIEF MILTON UNARMS AND HANDCUFFS HIGHWAYMEN; BOOTY RESTORED.

Chief of Police Tom Milton yesterday afternoon captured single handed two negro highwaymen after they had held up and robbed a railroad camp below New Smyrna, and while they were making a get-away northward with their booty. Each robber topped the six-foot mark and weighed over 160 pounds, and one of them toted a "41" Colts gun which he would have used readily had he been given the opportunity.

After being notified by the New Smyrna authorities about 11 a. m. the chief laid his plans. At 12:30—just an hour and a half later—both bandits were subdued, handcuffed and awaiting their ride to New Smyrna and justice. They were given a preliminary hearing upon their arrival in that city and will be sent to DeLand today.

The Hold Up.

Two negroes entered the construction camp situated on the branch line of the F. E. C. Ry. two and one-half miles south of New Smyrna, which will connect that city and Marytown with the K. Y. railroad, Thursday afternoon. One of the pair drew his gun on the colored cook, who was the only man in the camp at the time, while the other rifled his pockets and searched the bunk house for valuables.

After collecting $23.00 in cash, the total capital of said cook, the highwaymen started off into the woods.

A farm occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Marlow, well-known residents of the section, lies close beside the camp. Mr. Marlow was away, but Mrs. Marlow, an elderly woman, saw the hold-up from the window, grabbed her husband's shot gun and rushed to the rescue. When she reached the scene the robbers had disappeared in the woods. The cook took the gun and found it empty. This necessitated a trip to the farm house before he could take up the chase. After an hour's futile search through the nearby hammock, the victim hastened to New Smyrna and notified the authorities. A party of armed men scoured the country through the evening and night, but failed to locate the bandits.

Daytona Authorities Notified.

At 11:00 a. m. yesterday Chief Milton received the following note from New Smyrna: "Dear Mr. Milton, Look out for two big black niggers, six feet tall, weighing 160 pounds each, dressed in blue overalls and wearing black caps. One is armed with a "41" Colts. They are wanted for highway robbery. (Signed) W. H. Newel, mayor."

Chief Milton immediately set a man to watch the railroad track, believing the pair would strike north along the right of way. At 12:15 o'clock a report came in stating a couple of negroes answering the above description had been seen from Waycross, walking the rails.

The chief got out of his car, walked machine, behind the Schultz plant at a point near the trestle. After waiting in the car a few minutes, Milton saw the pair sauntering toward him. He stood up in the automobile, pulled his coat off and called to them. When the negroes looked up, they found themselves staring into the business end of a revolver.

Handcuffs Robbers Unaided.

They hied got out of his car, walked up to the bandits, poked his gun into their ribs and removed a "41" Colts from the taller. Then he urged them to slip their fingers through a pair of serviceable handcuffs.

The money was found intact and the couple giving their names respectively as Will and Mamie Smith, from Savannah, Ga., were turned over to the New Smyrna authorities.

WILBUR BY THE SEA

WILBUR-BY-THE-SEA, March 24—Thursday night was merry night at the club house and the ladies of the colony were their guests. A mock marriage took place. H. W. Eaton was made up as the blushing bride and Lester Tilden was the groom. He was attended by Harold Widden, who acted as best man. Mrs. H. W. Eaton and Miss Marie Williams acted as bridesmaids, and William T. Eaton gave the bride away. W. F. Cobb performed the ceremony and Mrs. Augusta King played Lohengrin's Wedding march. As the bridal party entered the club house amid gales of laughter, Mr. Wilbur presented the happy couple with a bag said to contain $500 in gold, and a deed, said to be for 10 lots of land at Wilbur-by-the-Sea, and last, but not least, a certificate good for one "Tin Lizzie."

Following the wedding a reception took place and Mr. Wilbur cut the large wedding cake. It was some wedding. Dancing and refreshments followed.

Mr. Wilbur has sold all the cottages which he has offered for sale this season. Already the new owners are busy at work improving the grounds about them. This has been a banner year for Wilbur-by-the-Sea.

Lester Tilden left for his home in Boston on Friday morning.

On Wednesday night a surprise party was given to Mrs. W. L. Healy, it being her birthday anniversary. Her son, Ed Healy, presented his mother with $5c in gold. Refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent at cards.

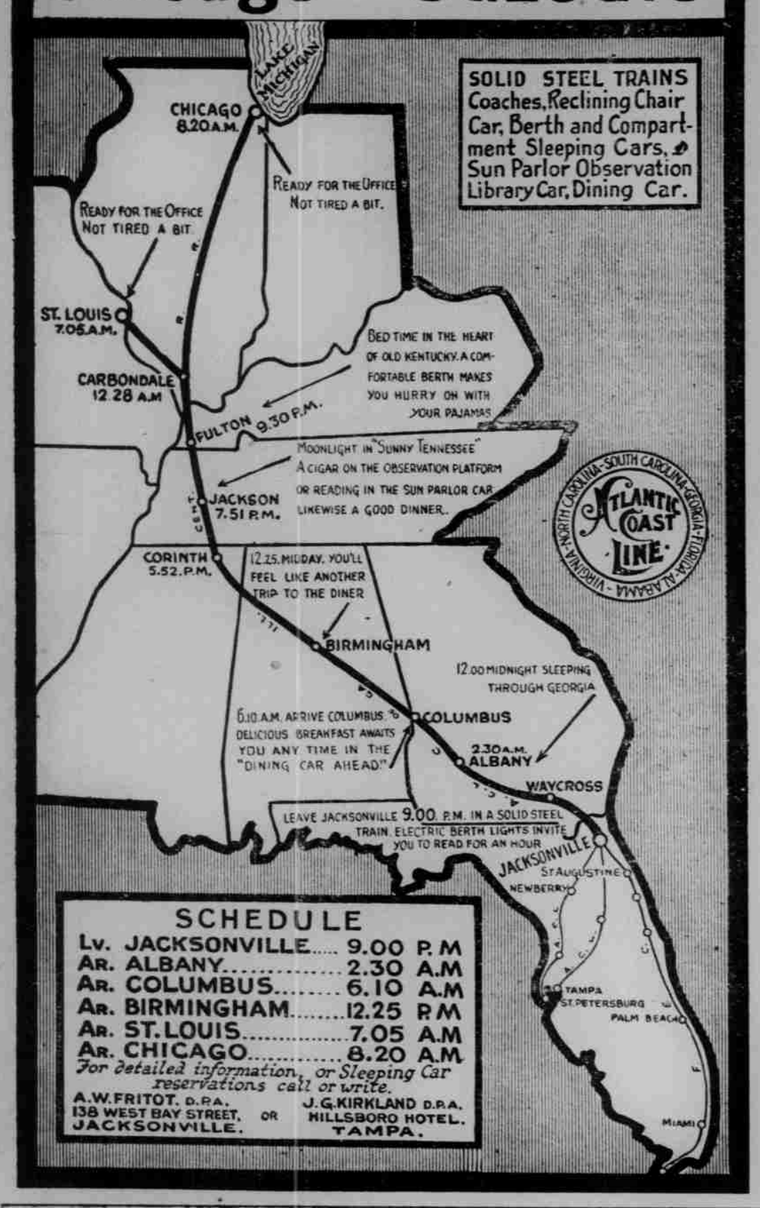

Fishing still keeps good at Wilbur. After two hours of excitement and a dangerous combat Thursday afternoon Capt. Healy, of the Wilbur fleet, landed a large specimen of Pesta Antiquarus 14 feet and four inches in length. It took three rifle shots to finally dispatch the immense fish, which is commonly known as the saw fish. This great monster, weighing nearly a thousand pounds is on exhibition at the Wilbur dock and is attracting considerable attention.

L. G. Bates and Harold Bates have closed their cottage on Riverside drive and left for their home in Klein, Mich.

EXCELLENT CROWD COMES OUT TO THE TOURIST BANQUET

SIX PERSONS ATTENDED GRAND BANQUET, THE LAST NUMBER OF TOURIST CLASS LECTURE COURSE.

With a crowd of three hundred pen[sons] residents and visitors present, the grand banquet, held at the Daytona Beach Methodist church, Friday evening, closed the course of entertainments given through the winter by the Tourist class of this church.

Preparations had been made for accommodating 300 people, and this estimate of the attendance proved to be very correct.

Before all were seated for their supper, the crowd sang "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow." After [all] everyone ate the splendid viands which were served by about thirty of the ladies who are members of the Tourist class. A fine menu was set before each, and everybody did justice to the excellent food.

At the end of the supper, the audience joined in hearting in a few well [chosen] hymns, the singing of which was followed by a well played piano solo by Prescott Van Horn.

R. B. Holmes, president of the Tourist class, opened the program as toastmaster and gave a splendid toast to "Home." In a witty manner, applauding for the listeners. After his toast, Dr. Holmes introduced the other speakers of the evening, in his inimitable way.

Mayor M. P. Gay then toasted the "Peninsula," giving a fine review of its progress since his first residence here several years ago. This toast was especially appreciated by those present who had seen the Peninsula town grow to their present size from small settlements and homesteads.

Then next to respond was G. W. Guard has been the chairman of the entertainment committee of the class during the last winter.

The best toast of the evening came next, by Mrs. C. A. Randall, who talked on the subject of the "New Pipe Organ." Mrs. Randall told well, instances of the power of music and what an influence for the better it has in the lives of thousands of people.

S. G. Young then gave the toast of "Consecrated Dueats," which was fully appreciated by the church members present.

This was followed by another splendid toast given by Mrs. Henry Mitchell, who represented the women's club interests as well as the southern part of the peninsula towns. Mrs. Mitchell's subject, "Woman's Work in Civic Life," was treated in a witty and interesting manner.

Orla J. Price, Ph.D., of Lansing, Mich., then gave the address of the evening on "Social Christianity," taking an hour of the evening's time for his excellent speech. He illustrated his serious talk with many funny anecdotes and held the audience between tears and laughter during his entire talk. Dr. Price came from Lansing for the express purpose of talking at this banquet. He told how "Social Christianity" is something just dawning on the greater part of human minds, although its real founder was Jesus Christ. He said that this kind of Christianity knew no different sects or creeds. He spoke to an audience which contained 20 different denominations, including Protestants and Catholics. He told them to read their creeds over carefully, when they reached home after the evening's entertainment, and that they would not find a word of "Social Christianity" in them. At the close of this address the speaker was well applauded.

Closing the program Rev. John J. Trendwell told of a "Vision of the Future," and prophesied great things for his church in the future.

Dr. R. J. Nast, who is visiting at the home of J. N. Gamble, dismissed the meeting with a benediction.

ELECTION FOR TOWN OFFICERS HELD TODAY

Today is held the regular yearly election for the municipal offices of the town of Daytona Beach. There is a close contest for two of the offices, treasurer and marshal, respectively. J. H. Belden and H. G. Pelots are the nominees for treasurer, and H. E. Bennett and J. E. Creech are both on the ticket for the office of marshal.

It is probable that a larger number of voters will cast a ballot at today's election than ever before, as much interest is taken in the result.

Mrs. Jessie Lewis and daughters, Miss Nina Lewis and Mrs. Dana Koontz, and children, plan to leave Sunday for Baton Rouge, La., to make that place their home. They have been residents of the beach and De Leon Springs for several years, and will be missed by their many friends. They will go as far as Tampa with Mrs. Lewis, son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, and after leaving the party at Tampa, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts will return to the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Fishes, of White Plains, N. Y., are registered for the remainder of the season at the Princess Issena.

TOURIST CLASS CLEARS OVER $300.00 ON COURSE

The Tourist class of the Daytona Beach Methodist church have cleared over $300.00 on their course of entertainments during the past season. This goodly sum will be applied toward the purchase of a pipe organ to take place of the "squeek box" which is now used to furnish the music for the church services.

Members and visitors of the church will be greatly pleased to find a fine organ here on their return from the north next season and the members of the senior and junior choirs will be only too delighted to have a real organ to support their singing instead of having to support the organ with their efforts as they have done heretofore.

LARGE CROWD OF NEW YORK PEOPLE MEET AT NAUTILUS

Forty-one residents of Binghampton, N. Y., met Friday noon at the Nautilus and enjoyed a fine basket lunch at this popular pleasure hall. Addresses were made by different persons present, and it is doubtful if any other town can make such a good showing alone, unless it be Lansing.

Those present left for their homes late in the afternoon after a very pleasant time.

FIFTY GUESTS ENJOY PARTY AT DAYTONA BEACH HOTEL

Miss Myrtle Barbe entertained a large number of her friends at a dancing party held at the Daytona Beach Hotel, Friday evening. Between forty and fifty of the young people of Daytona Beach were present for the evening of fun and frolic.

During the entire evening punch and candy were served by some of the young ladies, and near the time of closing, ice cream and cake were served as additional refreshments.

The merry people danced many of the old time dances, such as the Virginia reel, the Paul Jones and other forms of the old days. The music was furnished by a four-piece string orchestra, furnished for the occasion.

Miss Barbe received many beautiful presents from the guests of the evening, all of which were on display.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Jenkin, of Chicago, Ill., who have been enjoying a stay of some length at the Hotel Clarendon, left Friday for points in the southern part of the state. They will visit Palm Beach, Miami, Havana, Cuba, and other points before returning to their home in Chicago. They were very enthusiastic in their praise of the beach, and thoroughly enjoyed their stay at this popular hostelry.

EXCELLENT CROWD COMES OUT TO THE TOURIST BANQUET

306 PERSONS ATTENDED GRAND BANQUET, THE LAST NUMBER OF TOURIST CLASS LECTURE COURSE.

With a crowd of three hundred peninsula residents and visitors present, the grand banquet, held at the Daytona Beach Methodist church, Friday evening, closed the course of entertainments given through the winter by the Tourist class of this church.

Preparations had been made for accommodating 300 people, and this estimate of the attendance proved to be very correct.

Before all were seated for their supper, the crowd sang "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow." After this everyone ate the splendid victuals which were served by about thirty of the ladies who are members of the Tourist class. A fine menu was set before each, and everybody did justice to the excellent food.

At the end of the supper, the audience joined in heartily in a few well-known hymns, the singing of which was followed by a well played piano solo by Prescott Van Horn.

R. S. Holmes, presdent of the Tourist class, opened the program as toastmaster and gave a splendid toast to "Ideals," in a witty manner, applauded by the listeners. After his toast, Mr. Holmes introduced the other speakers of the evening, in his inimitable way.

Mayor M. P. Guy then toasted the "Peninsula," giving a fine review of its progress since his first residence here several years ago. This toast was especially appreciated by those present who had seen the Peninsula towns grow to their present size from small settlements and homestands.

Then next to respond was G. W. Guard has been the chairman of the entertainment committee of the class during the last winter.

The best toast of the evening came next, by Mrs. C. A. Randall, who talked on the subject of the "New Pipe Organ." Mrs. Randall told well, instances of the power of music and what an influence for the better it has in the lives of thousands of people.

S. G. Young then gave the toast of "Consecrated Ducats," which was fully appreciated by the church members present.

This was followed by another splendid toast given by Mrs. Henry Mitchell, who represented the women's club interests as well as the southern part of the peninsula towns. Mrs. Mitchell's subject, "Woman's Work in Civic Life," was treated in a witty and interesting manner.

Orla J. Price, Ph.D., of Lansing, Mich., then gave the address of the evening on "Social Christianity," taking an hour of the evening's time for his excellent speech. He illustrated his serious talk with many funny anecdotes and held the audience between tears and laughter during his entire talk. Dr. Price came from Lansing for the express purpose of talking at this banquet. He told how "Social Christianity" is something just dawning on the greater part of human minds, although its real founder was Jesus Christ. He said that this kind of Christianity knew no different sects or creeds. He spoke to an audience which contained 30 different denominations, including Protestants and Catholics. He told them to read their creeds over carefully, when they reached home after the evening's entertainment, and that they would not find a word of "Social Christianity" in them. At the close of this address the speaker was well applauded.

Closing the program Rev. John J. Treadwell told of a "Vision of the Future," and prophesied great things for his church in the future.

Dr. R. J. Nast, who is visiting at the home of J. N. Gamble, dismissed the meeting with a benediction.

ELECTION FOR TOWN OFFICERS HELD TODAY

Today is held the regular yearly election for the municipal offices of the town of Daytona Beach. There is a close contest for two of the offices, treasurer and marshal, respectively. J. H. Selden and H. G. Pollitz are the nominees for treasurer, and H. E. Bennett and J. E. Creech are both on the ticket for the office of marshal.

It is probable that a larger number of voters will cast a ballot at today's election than ever before, as much interest is taken in the result.

Mrs. Jessie Lewis and daughters, Miss Nina Lewis and Mrs. Dana Koontz, and children, plan to leave Sunday for Baton Rouge, La., to make that place their home. They have been residents of the beach and DeLeon Springs for several years, and will be missed by their many friends. They will go as far as Tampa with Mrs. Lewis, son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, and after leaving the party at Tampa, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts will return to the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Fisher, of White Plains, N. Y., are registered for the remainder of the season at the Princess Issena.

TOURIST CLASS CLEARS OVER $300.00 ON COURSE

The Tourist class of the Daytona Beach Methodist church have cleared over $300.00 on their course of entertainments during the past season. This goodly sum will be applied toward the purchase of a pipe organ to take place of the "squeek box" which is now used to furnish the music for the church services.

Members and visitors of the church will be greatly pleased to find a fine organ here on their return from the north next season and the members of the senior and junior choirs will be only too delighted to have a real organ to support their singing instead of having to support the organ with their efforts as they have done heretofore.

LARGE CROWD OF NEW YORK PEOPLE MEET AT NAUTILUS

Forty-one residents of Binghampton, N. Y., met Friday noon at the Nautilus and enjoyed a fine basket lunch at this popular pleasure hall. Addresses were made by different persons present, and it is doubtful if any other town can make such a good showing alone, unless it be Lansing.

Those present left for their homes late in the afternoon after a very pleasant time.

FIFTY GUESTS ENJOY PARTY AT DAYTONA BEACH HOTEL

Miss Myrtle Barbe entertained a large number of her friends at a dancing party held at the Daytona Beach Hotel, Friday evening. Between forty and fifty of the young people of Daytona Beach were present for the evening of fun and frolic.

During the entire evening punch and candy were served by some of the young ladies, and near the time of closing, ice cream and cake were served as additional refreshments.

The merry people danced many of the old time dances, such as the Virginia reel, the Paul Jones and other forms of the old days. The music was furnished by a four-piece string orchestra, furnished for the occasion.

Miss Barbe received many beautiful presents from the guests of the evening, all of which were on display.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Junkin, of Chicago, Ill., who have been enjoying a stay of some length at the Hotel Clarendon, left Friday for points in the southern part of the state. They will visit Palm Beach, Miami, Havana, Cuba, and other points before returning to their home in Chicago. They were very enthusiastic in their praise of the beach, and thoroughly enjoyed their stay at this popular hostelry.

PHILADELPHIA TEAM TO MEET NATIONALS

ONE MORE PRACTICE GAME AND THEN COMES THE REAL THING —FIRST BIG ENGAGEMENT.

One more exhibition game today between the Regulars and Colts of the Brooklyn National league squad, and then comes tomorrow with the first of the big engagements that will continue until the end of the first week in October. The time for joshing and the days of the kidder are over. Six months of bitter strife are at hand.

Tomorrow the Philadelphia Athletics will be in our sandy midst at the Daytona Ebbets Field for a game, and they will remain over at the Despland for another on Monday. Tuesday morning at 8:25 the Superbas and Athletics will entrain in amity and an express, and beat it to Jacksonville, where the same two teams meet on Tuesday and Wednesday. On Wednesday night the Superbas entrain again, that time for Washington on the Potomac, to brave the windstorms of Capitol Hill and the American Leaguers commanded by Clark Griffith. Their headquarters will be the Ebbitt House. They play in Washington Friday and Saturday and once more entrain, but only for a 45-mile ride to Baltimore. In the Monumental City they are booked to stop at the Rennert hotel, and on Sunday they tackle Jack Dunn's re-Baltimored International Leaguers, who were run out last year by the Federals and took shelter in Richmond, Va. Dunn's team will be played again on Tuesday, and Tuesday night stakes will be pulled for a long stay 'neath the shade of the old rubber plant in Flatbush and environs.

The athletes will be both glad and sorry to depart from Daytona on the Halifax. They will miss the weather of Daytona, but they will shed no tears over getting away from the high sky and the glare of the sand which have made it impossible to get a line on the real merits of the outfielders, or the actual amount of substance in the number of extra base hits which the scorers have so liberally recorded.

On the whole, the Superbas are in excellent shape for their six-months grind. There is not a serious ailment in the camp. Even Wheezer Dell's corned feet are once more in reasonable shape, and the sore arms reported are of such a minor character that in the regular season they would hardly be noticed. The men are as fit as they could become, physically, but it will require the three series in Jacksonville, Washington and Baltimore for the outfielders to find themselves. Playing on the sand shows up a man mentally and physically. If it is continued long enough the tendency to quit on difficult flies becomes noticeable, and has to be eradicated at all cost.

Ed Pfeffer and Marquard should about be the two Brooklyn pitchers tomorrow in the opener with the Athletics, but Uncle Wilbert Robinson has not yet announced his selection. If either of those should work this afternoon it would mean that he would not be in the points tomorrow.

The arrival of Jimmy Johnston late yesterday afternoon completed the squad, with the exception of Hi Myers, who will join after the stork has visited his home. When Myers does appear he will find Johnston in center. The newoutfielder had been working out with the horde of ball players who infest Tennessee in general and Chattanooga, his present home, in particular, and looked as fit as a fiddle. He said he needed a little practice of the moves pneumatic sort, but that as far as his muscular condition was concerned, he was ready to go into the sixtie right away.

Johnston made a most favorable impression. He is ideally built for an athlete, as well as could be judged from his appearance in street clothes, and would be sized up immediately for what he is towit, a man who should be unusually fast on his feet. His record of more than eighty stolen bases for Oakland, in the Coast League last year, had already given the tip on his speed. His batting marks of .243 in such a fast minor as the Coast League, in which he equalled Ty Cobb's record on one and one-third hits per game, proves that there are at least some pitchers he can hit, and he should find quite a few of that variety in the National League.

Johnston has had more experience with majors than has been thought. He was with the Cubs the whole of 1914 season, and received valuable instruction. His career, in brief, is as follows:

James Harle Johnston was born in Cleveland, Tenn., December 10, 1889. He stands five feet, nine inches and weighs 165 pounds. Bats and throws right-handed. First engagement with Kewanee, Central association, playing there in 1908 and 1909. In 1910 played with Seattle, then with Ottumwa. Is. Drafted in 1910 by Chicago Americans from Ottumwa. Took training trip to Texas with Chicago Americans in 1911, got all the way back to Chicago, played in art of one game, and was sent to Birmingham Southern Association. Finished 1911 in Birmingham, played 1912 in Birmingham, and recalled at end of season by Chicago Americans. In 1913 was taken by Chicago Americans on training trip to the coast and was dropped off in San Francisco, where he played in 1913, and was that fall drafted by the Chicago Nationals.

In 1914 Johnston was with the Cubs all year, warming the bench. In 1915 he reported to Roger Bresnahan at the Tampa training camp of the Cubs and was sent to Oakland, Pacific Coast league. Labored for Oakland last year and at end of season jumped his reserve and signed withthe Newark Feds, getting an iron-clad contract for two years at $4,000 per year. Subsequently he met Boss Ebbets and agreed to come back to organized ball, but there was a disagreement about the terms and he failed to report on March 1. He got here March 24, after a compromise by which he is to receive $3,000 per year and an iron-clad contract for two years.

Johnston explained that the Cubs tried to recall him last autumn, but they overlooked some technical detail in the document. That was what gave Ebbets the right to bargain with him. Incidentally, the fact that it was taken for granted that he would be recalled by the Cubs prevented half a dozen major clubs from putting in bids for Johnston.

The newcomer is expected to appear in center for the Regulars today. He will be warmly welcomed by Nap Rucker, who has been toiling there and has not been happy, although surprisingly successful.

Then crab team which went to DeLand yesterday to battle with the Stetson college nine, had the surprise of its life. The Stetson students, with the assistance of Eddie Hollander, formerly of Toronto, their coach, tied up the game three times before the Superbas finally won by 9 to 6. To prevent the hardy professionals from becoming lazy and losing their pep in the mid-summer heat, two billion gnats mobilized on the field and kept them stepping like the famous dancing turkeys of a by-gone day. A few of those gnats would be a big help in making Jess Willard step lively.

Goodbred pitched five hits for the Colts and yielded five runs and five hits. Colwell pitched the last four and was touched for three hits and one run. Goodbred is a Floridian and was accused of lying down on his job somewhat, out of native pride in dear old Stetson, but at that the Collegians were the sassy rascals with the stick, and they fielded without an error. Burdick and Gardiner amazed the Brooklynites by making catches that could not have been excelled by any big leaguer, and their team work was a decided credit to Hollander's coaching.

The feature was a home run drive over the center field fence by Larry Miller off a slow ball in the third inning after he had missed a swing at a fast one. In the ninth, whilst he score tied, Hickman walked and went to second on Olson's single. Mowry forced Olson, Hickman taking third. Getz doubled to right, scoring Hickman and Mowry. Larry Miller doubled to right, scoring Getz with the last run.

See the Girl in the Tire?

From a modest beginning the present Kelly-Springfield industry was developed, and while the output has increased over a thousand fold, the tires are still made by hand in the same old careful way.

An electric tractor is used by the Pennsylvania Railroad company to shift cars in the streets of Jersey City. On one of the wheels is a Kelly-Springfield sectional block tire which has seen twenty-two months continual service, during which period three other block type of tires of different makes were worn out; these were gradually replaced by Kelly-Springfield blocks, until now all four wheels are equipped.

ONE MORE PRACTICE GAME AND THEN COMES THE REAL THING —FIRST BIG ENGAGEMENT.

One more exhibition game today between the Regulars and Colts, of the Brooklyn National league squad, and then comes tomorrow with the first of the big engagements that will continue until the end of the first week in October. The time for joshing and the days of the kidder are over. Six months of bitter strife are at hand.

Tomorrow the Philadelphia Athletics will be in our sandy midst at the Daytona Ebbets Field for a game, and they wil remain over at the Despland for another on Monday. Tuesday morning at 8:33 the Superbas and Athletics will entrain in amity and an express, and beat it to Jacksonville, where the same two teams meet on Tuesday and Wednesday. On Wednesday night the Superbas entrain again, that time for Washington on the Potomac, to brave the windstorms of Capitol Hill and the American Leaguers commanded by Clark Griffith. Their headquarters will be the Ebbitt House. They play in Washington Friday and Saturday and once more entrain, but only for a 45-mile ride to Baltimore. In the Monumental City they are booked to stop at the Rennert hotel, and on Sunday they tackle Jack Dunn's re-Baltimored International Leaguers, who were run out last year by the Federals and took shelter in Richmond, Va. Dunn's team will be played again on Tuesday, and Tuesday night stakes will be pulled for a long stay 'neath the shade of the old rubber plant in Flatbush and environs.

The athletes will be both glad and sorry to depart from Daytona on the Halifax. They will miss the weather of Daytona, but they will shed no tears over geting away from the high sky and the glare of the sand which have made in impossible to get a line on the real merits of the outfielders, or the actual amount of substance in the number of extra base hits which the scorers have so liberally recorded.

On the whole, the Superbas are in excellent shape for their six-months grind. There is not a serious ailment in the camp. Even Wheezer Dell's corned feet are once more in reasonable shape, and the sore arms reported are of such a minor character that in the refiular season they would hardly be noticed. The men are as fit as they could become, physically, but it will require the three series in Jacksonville, Washington and Baltimore for the outfielders to find themselves. Playing on the sand slows up a man mentally and physically. If it is continued long enough the tendency to quit on difficult flies becomes noticeable, and has to be eradicated at all cost.

Ed Pfeffer and Marquard should about be the two Brooklyn pitchers tomorrow in the opener with the Athletics, but Uncle Wilbert Robinson has not yet announced his selection. If either of those should work this afternoon it would mean that he would not be in the points tomorrow.

The arrival of Jimmy Johnston late yesterday afternoon completed the squad, witht he exception of Hi Myers, who will join after thes tork has visited his home. When Myers does appear he will find Johnston in center. The newoutfielder had been working out with the horde of ball players who infest Tennessee in general and Chattanooga, his present home, in particular, and looked as fit as a fiddle. He said he needed a little practice of the mores ystematic sort, but that as far as his muscular condition was concerned, he was ready to go into the strife right away.

Johnston made a most favorable impression. He is ideally built for an athelete, as well as could be pudged from his appearance in street clothes, and would be sized up immediately for what he is towit, a man who should be unusually fast on his feet. His record of more than eigthy stolen bases for Oakland, in the Coast League last year, had already given the tip on his speed. His batting marks of .348 in such a fast minor as the Coast League, in which he equalled Ty Cobb's record on one and one-third hits per game, proves that there are at least some pitchers he can hit, and he should find quite a few of that variety in the National League.

Johnston has had more experience with mapors than has been thought. He was with the Cubs the whole of 1914 season, and received valuable instruction. His career, in brief, is as follows:

James Harle Johnston was born in Cleveland, Tenn., December 10, 1889. He stands five feet, nine inches and weighs 165 pounds. Bats and throws right-handed. First engagement with Kewanee, Central association, playing there in 1908 and 1909. In 1910 played with Seattle, then with Ottumwa, Ia. Drafted in 1910 by Chicago Americans from Ottumwa. Took training trip to Texas with Chicago Americans in 1911, got all the way back to Chicago, played in art of one game, and was sent to Birmingham Southern Association. Finished 1911 in Birmingham, played 1912 in Birmingham, and recalled at end of season by Chicago Americans. In 1913 was taken by Chicago Americans on training trip to the coast and was dropped off in San Francisco, where he played in 1913, and was that fall drafted by the Chicago Nationals.

In 1914 Johnston was with the Cubs all year, warming the bench. In 1915 he reported to Roger Bresnahan at the Tampa training camp of the Cubs and was sent to Oakland, Pacific Coast league. Labored for Oakland last year and at end of season jumped his reserve and signed withthe Newark Feds, getting an iron-clad contract for two years at $4,000 per year. Subsequently he met Boss Ebbets and agreed to come back to organized ball, but there was a disagreement about the terms and he failed to report on March 1. He got here March 24, after a compromise by which he is to receive $3,600 per year and an iron-clad contract for two years.

Johnston explained that the Cubs tried to recall him last autumn, but they overlooked some technical detail in the document. That was what gave Ebbets the right to bargain with him. Incidentally, the fact that it was taken for granted that he would be recalled by the Cubs prevented half a dozen major clubs from putting in bids for Johnston.

The newcomer is expected to appear in center for the Regulars today. He will be warmly welcomed by Nap Rucker, who has been toiling there and has not been happy, although surprisingly successful.

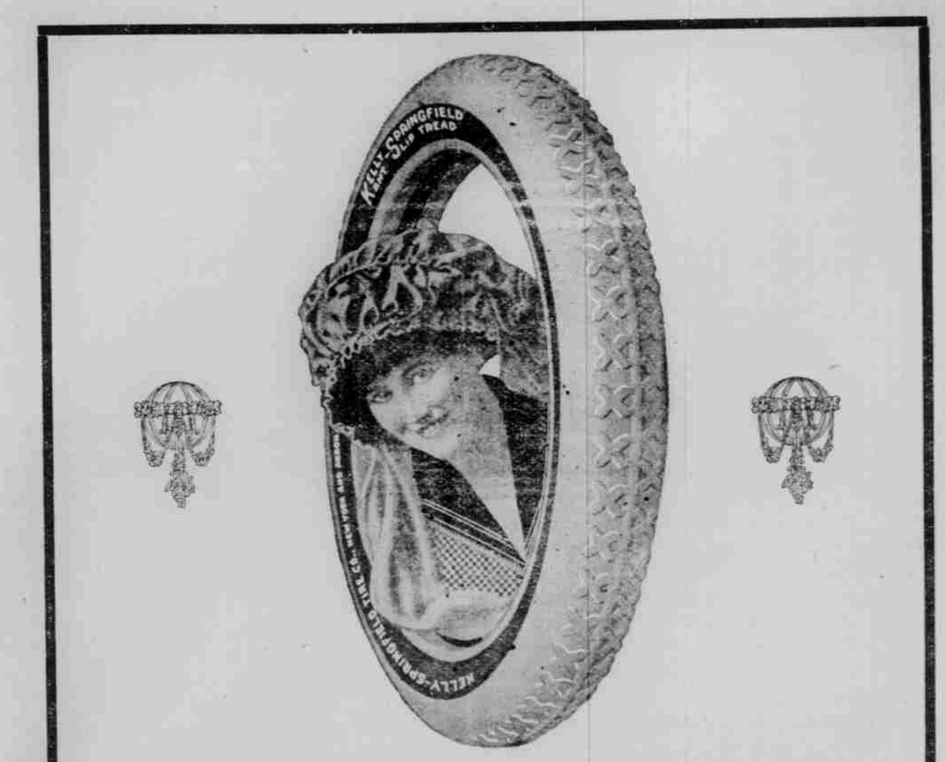

Thes crub team which went to DeLand yesterday to battle with the Stetson college nine, had the surprise of its life. The Stetson students, with the assistance of Eddie Hollander, formerly of Toronto, their coach, tied up the game three times before the Superbas finally won by 9 to 6. To prevent the hardy professionals from becoming lazy and losing their pep in the mid-summer heat, two billion gnats mobilized on the field and kept them stepping like the famous dancing turkeys of a by-gone day. A few of those gnats would be a big help in making Jess Willard step lively.

Goodbred pitched five hits for the Colts and yielded five runs and five hits. Colwell pitched the last four and was touched for three hits and one run. Goodbred is a Floridian and was accused of lying down on his job somewhat, out of native pride in dear old Stetson, but at that the Collegians were the sassy rascals with the stick, and they fielded without an error. Burdick and Gardiner amazed the Brooklynites by making catches that could not have been excelled by any big leaguer, and their team work was a decided credit to Hollander's coaching.

The feature was a home run drive over the center field fence by Larry Miller off a slow ball in the third inning after he had missed a swing at a fast one. In the ninth, witht he score tied, Hickman walked and went to second on Olson's single. Mowry forced Olson, Hickman taking third. Getz doubled to right, scoring Hickman and Mowry. Larry Miller doubled to right, scoring Getz with the last run.

Brilliant Dance Palmetto Clubhouse

The dance given at the Palmetto clubhouse Friday evening by four of Daytona's well known young men, Jno. B. Osborn, A. E. Donnelly, Everett C. Williams and Albertus C. Hankins, proved a most brilliant affair, about thirty couples enjoying the hospitality of these young men.

Entrancing dance music was furnished by Tucker's orchestra of the Clarendon hotel, and a splendid program of the latest dance music carried out. The orders were a unique creation in green and white, folded [illegible] fashion, embellished with the Palmetto club leaf, through the courtesy of its members.

At intermission a delicious buffet lunch of salad, sandwiches, ices and coffee was served.

The lucky prize contest following intermission was won by Miss Ella Woodbury and John Minor, Miss Woodbury receiving a box of candy and Mr. Minor a bottle of toilet water.

The dancing continued until one o'clock, when the sweet strains of "Good-Night" told the merry dancers that the happy evening was at an end. As the guests departed, each and every one assured the hosts that a delightful evening had been spent, which had ended all too soon.

ANOTHER ENGLISH SHIP SUNK; AMERICANS LOST

GREAT INTERNATIONAL QUESTION NOW COMES TO FRONT AS CRISIS — SERIOUS COMPLICATIONS FEARED BY GOVERNM'T.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The Dominion liner Englishman, of 5,200 tons displacement, was torpedoed and sunk three days out of Avonmouth, England, on her way to Portland, Maine. Four Americans are missing according to a cablegram from United States Consul Armstrong at Bristol.

Thirty-three survivors were landed at a northern British port and it is believed the total number saved was 66. Eighteen were possibly lost in the disaster. The four Americans were horsemen, thought to be employed by the Northwestern Trading company of New York.

Miss Baldwin, an American, was seriously hurt and 12 more Americans unaccounted for this afternoon. The German submarine fired the torpedo without warning.

Serious Complication Feared.

DOVER, March 25.—Several survivors of the Sussex who arrived here state 12 persons were killed by the explosion aboard the liner when the torpedo found its mark. An unknown number were drowned by the overturning of a lifeboat and two jumped into the sea. The fatalities altogether are believed to reach the 50 mark. Among the number lost, were some Americans.

(Note.—These two sea disasters promise serious international complications between Germany and the United States as the question so long avoided now comes to the front as a great crisis.)

ANOTHER ENGLISH SHIP SUNK; AMERICANS LOST

GREAT INTERNATIONAL QUESTION NOW COMES TO FRONT AS CRISIS — SERIOUS COMPLICATIONS FEARED BY GOVERNM'T.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The Dominion liner, Englishman, of 5,200 tons dispacement, was torpedoed and sunk three days out of Avonmouth, England, on her way to Portland, Maine. Four Americans are missing according to a cablegram from United States Consul Armstrong at Bristol.

Thirty-three survivors were landed at a northern British port and it is believed the total number saved was 60. Eighteen were possibly lost in the disaster. The four Americans were horsemen, thought to be employed by the Northwestern Trading company of New York.

Miss Baldwin, an American, was seriously hurt and 12 more Americans unaccounted for this afternoon. The German submarine fired the torpedo without warning.

Serious Complication Feared.

DOVER, March 25.—Several survivors of the Sussex who arrived here state 12 persons were killed by the explosion aboard the liner when the torpedo found its mark. An unknown number were drowned by the overturning of a lifeboat and two jumped into the sea. The fatalities altogether are believed to reach the 50 mark. Among the number lost, were some Americans.

(Note.—These two sea disasters promise serious international complications between Germany and the United States as the question so long avoided now comes to the front as a great crisis.

MANY TOURISTS STILL ON WEST COAST AND IN INTERIOR

L. Clark Leonardy returned yesterday evening from a short business visit to Tampa and says that city is still full of tourists and there are many winter visitors also at other points on the West Coast and interior points. Mr. Leonardy also visited Lakeland and says that city was still well filled with visitors.

1,100 GOVERNMENT EMPLOYES TO BOWL

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 25.—Eleven hundred government employes have signified their intention of entering the Bowling Tournament to be staged in Washington, beginning April 3rd, under the auspices of the Atlantic Coast Bowling Tournament.

Listed among the entries at present are employes from the Bureau of Engraving, Government Printing Office, Treasury Department, Census Department, Pension Department, Patent Department and Bureau of Agriculture.

It seems certain now that about 500 5-men-teams will take part in the tournament instead of 350 teams, the number originally anticipated.

On the opening night, President Wilson will roll the first ball. Five hundred of the grandstand seats have been reserved for members of the Foreign Legations, Embassys, Congressmen and Senators.

	Years Training	Total Fights	Won.	Lost.	Draw.	No Dec.
Willard	5	39	31	3	3	2
Moran	4	43	37	3	2	1

NEW YORK, March 25.—Jess Willard and Frank Moran impatiently await the bang of the gong that will send them into their 10-round battle tonight in Madison Square Garden.

Both men are trained to the minute. Moran was stale a refleat with "rest of exhibition." Four weeks of training for both men has hardened their bodies until they seem able to resist onslaughts of shrapnel. Yet each man is sure that he will knock out the other.

The rival ring warriors are like bull-dogs straining at the leash. They can hardly wait until the battle begins. Each wants to demonstrate to his followers that he is unquestionably the greatest ring man of the present era. Moran, despite the fact that he is "spotting" Willard half a hundred weight in point and half a foot in height and reach is sure that he can do what no other man ever accomplished—score a knockout over Willard.

The huge champion, on the other hand, realizes that he must convert the "Minnesotan" in this battle. There are thousands of ring followers who have spended him and have called him the accidental champion. They often have said that Willard will be beaten by the first good man he meets. Willard, therefore, wants to win a decisive victory so as to prove to the world at large that he is a real champion—the king of the pugilistic kings.

The betting is 3 to 1 that there will not be a knockout—that the fight will go the scheduled ten rounds. Yet each man will fight with that one purpose in mind—to send his foe down for the full count. Willard wants to score a complete victory so as to give his adverse proution, while Moran knows that he cannot ascend to the throne by any other route than a Morphean punch.

Both men are right handed punchers—and each packs a deadly wallop in the portside fin. But neither has a left hand that seems sure-fire. If there should be a knockout, the chances are that a right hand swing will produce it.

The crowd will be a record-breaker, as far as New York state is concerned, both in attendance in receipts, as far as crowd arrvaae are concerned. The crowd will number beyond 12,000 which is larger than any that has attended any recent bout in the state except the McFarland-Gibbons fiasco which was staged out in the open last summer. The receipts, according to the promoters, have gone close to the $150,000 mark, which exceeds any New York "gate" in the memory of the oldest inhabitants.

Many of the choice seats found their way into the hands of speculators and the later arrivals among the fans paid double and treble the marked prices for the pasteboards.

The crowd mainly will be composed of New Yorkers, but around the ringside and scattered through the ballroom and the rear part of the floor will be lovers of the pugilistic game from all parts of the United States. It was estimated that at least 1,500 of the ticket holders have come from out of the city.

Less betting has been done on the outcome of tonight's battle than any in which a champion heavyweight has figured. The odds which ranged from 10 to 8 to 10 to 6 earlier in the week, dropped to 2 to 1 in Willard's favor today; but there wasn't much money offered and little of it taken. These odds apply to Willard winning, either by knockout or in the concensus of opinion among the New York sport writers.

The Willardites told 1 to 1 that the champion will knock out Moran, and 4 to 1 that Moran won't put the champion to sleep. These bets found a fair number of takers, but the total amount bet in New York City on the outcome of the fight, hardly will go beyond $75,000, this sum including both ends of the bet.

Willard goes into the battle a favorite in the betting and a favorite in the opinion of the best known ring experts. But the average New Yorkers will be at the ringside "pulling" for the blonde Pittsburgher, because they have come to idolize him and because they feel that he would be a champion far more popular than Willard.

But the non-partisan fan will take unto himself a seat tonight, anticipate a clashing battle from gong to gong and filled with the spirit, "May the best man win."

Awful Recollection.

When we consider gowns we shudder to think of all the sleeves we licked during childhood.—Kansas City Judge.

WHAT THEY SAY:

(By Jess Willard, Champion.)

"I expect to win, and I hope it will be via the knockout route. I'm in for the best fight of my career—and my friends can bank on it that I'll put forth the best that is in me.

"Moran is a dangerous man, and no one holds him in any higher regard than I do. He has a great punch, but I think I can take it several times on the body or jaw—and keep coming for more. I know, too, that Moran can take a great amount of punishment, but when he gets in the way of one of my right handers he may find that it's a different kind of wallop than he's ever stopped before.

"It's going to be a real fight."

(By Frank Moran, Challenger.)

"I'm going out after Jess from the tap of the gong—and I am going to win. Something seems to tell me that this old hay-maker of mine is going to bring down the champion and give his crown to me.

"Winning on points won't satisfy me. I want to win, by a knockout—and I'll devote all my efforts to get over that punch. Willard is the biggest man I've ever fought, but you know Bob Fitzsimmons favorite expression, 'bigger they 'k'are the 'arder they fall.'

"I'm in the greatest shape I've ever been in. I can go ten rounds—or 20—at top speed. And I'm going fast that fast. I'll gain nothing laying back and waiting for Jess to come to me. At least, that's the way I figure it now. I'll sail right into the big boy and begin beating a tattoo on his stomach. Then, when I've reduced his size to the equal of mine, I'll tickle him on the jaw with 'Little Betsy'—and then the fight will be over."

(By Charlie ("Old Goodeye") White, Referee.)

"The boys must fight. Stalling won't go. And they've got to fight according to rules. That here clinching. The fans of New York and other places are paying the boys some big money to see them in real battle, and it's my duty to make the boys earn their money."

SMALL OIL FIRE CALLS OUT CITY DEPARTMENT

The Daytona department was called out at 6:45 o'clock last evening by an alarm of fire turned in from the Shults electric light plant. The blaze proved to be a small one and was soon extinguished. An oil tap connecting with a fuel tank in some way became ignited and exhibited fireworks for several minutes that made Johnny Jones and his clever scrap tame. The damage was trifling.

THE WEATHER

FOR FLORIDA: Fair tonight and Sunday in central and south portions of Florida; moderate southeast to south winds.

Optimist Department, Devoted to Cheering up "The Land of Sunshine."
(BY GENE JONES.)

Tourists are funny things. They blow in like the ducks with the beginning of cold weather, and blow out again with the beginning of hot weather. A tourist's a human thermometer, but some of 'em need regulatin'. Now that's no slam on a tourist. A thermometer is a mighty nice thing—and so are tourists a mighty nice thing. (I only dare say that because it's near the end of the season).

'Member yesterday I said I walked out of that flea tent at Ole Johnnie Jones show with a flea, and turned around and walked right back again? Yep, I did it; but I never guessed another one of the birds had played stowaway with me. But I guessed it after awhile. I had my attention called to it!

My attention itched so hard I had to scratch all night. (Slipped one by the censor that time!) But, seriously, fleas can drag 1,000 times their own weight. They can drag little toy cannon and tiny carriages about, but they've got no drag with me. Not after last night! A flea is a flea, and should be placed in the class with all dangerous insects—Fords, beetles, Fords, mosquitos, Fords and Fords!

Here's one for you: Why is a Ford like a flea? Couldn't guess it, could you? Because it never lands in the same place twice. But a Ford has a keener smell than a flea—at least, that's what people say, who have both. A flea, he smells pretty well, but a Ford, you can smell a Ford a MILE!

THE SOUTHERN SPELL.

My heart is sad, I'm feelin' blue,
It's mighty near the time
To hike away to countries new—
In far-off northern clime.

The Mason-Dixon Line you'll cross,
To Noman's land you'll go;
Far from palms and Spanish moss,
To blizzards, ice and snow.

All through the dreary northern days,
The South will keep a-callin';
I hate the parting of the ways,
The thought is sure appallin'.

So in the future, wake at night,
Let mem'ry crune the tune,
Of Romanceland in silvery light,
Beneath a Southern moon.

Of words you whispered, dreams you dreamed,
Of happiness and love;
You won't forget how sweet they seemed
With Southern sky above.

For when you travel far away,
To foreign lands, you'll find,
The country of your yesterday,
Has stolen heart and mind.

And when the gloomy fall arrives,
Leave every earthly care;
And seek the land where Romance thrives—
DAYTONA'S waiting there.

SEVILLE NOTEL WILL BE OPEN TO JULY 1

At the request of patrons and with the desire to accommodate those visitors in Daytona who desire to remain later in the season and enjoy the delightful weather which prevails here after the general closing of the hotels, Mrs. E. H. Purdy, proprietor of the Seville hotel, has concluded to keep that popular hostelry open until July 1st. The Seville, which is a strictly modern house, is beautifully situated on South street, with large grounds extending east and west to Ridgewood and Palmetto avenues. It is an ideal location for the northern visitor who wishes to linger in comfort after the departure of the main throng of tourists.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Moore went down to Castle Windy, Mr. Moore's hunting and fishing lodge on the peninsula, opposite Oak Hill, yesterday, to spend the week-end.

Little Miss Hasterlick, the pretty five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. Hasterlick, of Chicago, delightfully entertained those who were present at the Casino Burgoyne, Thursday evening, when she danced for them in a very gracefully, happy, sweet and winsome way. This dear little girl is very much afraid of dogs, and imagine her consternation when a bold canine appear on the open floor space where hse was dancing. She was dreadfully frightened, but very brave and continued her steps in a charming way, all the while steadily watching the dog, who had the good sense to keep at a safe distance. She sweetly lisped afterward that she could have danced better, if the dog had not been present. After one number she paid her respects to Commodore Burgoyne, who enoyed her performance eas well as anyone present, and then danced another. She was very well received and was generously applauded.

FORT PIERCE PARTY HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM INJURY EN ROUTE FROM GOOD ROADS MEETING AT ST. AUGUSTINE.

En route home to Fort Pierce from the State Good Roads meeting at St. Augustine, R. White, ex-mayor of Fort Pierce, and party, had a narrow escape from death or serious inury, Friday evening. Accompanied by Mrs. White, Thomas Sullivan and young son and R. L. Goodwin, the "Pineapple King," Mr. White was driving along at fair speed just south of Bunnell. A Ford touring car was ahead of him, and just as the Ford was going onto a high bridge, the driver stopped without warning. The Hudson ploughed into the rear end of the Ford, and in his endeavor to save the occupants of the Ford from injury, Mr. White turned his wheel and the front of the car broke the railing of the bridge and hung suspended over the ditch.

Mr. White quickly set his brakes and saved the car from turning turtle by only a hair's breath. The rear of the Ford was badly smashed and the radiator of the Hudson was demolished so that it was necessary to tow the latter car to Daytona.

The radiator was repaired and Mr. White and his party will leave late this evening or early tomorrow for Fort Pierce.

TRANSPORT HANCOCK TO GO TO GALVESTON

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The United States transport Hancock has been ordered from Key West to Galveston in case she may be needed to carry troops from that point to the west coast of Mexico.

A. M. Griffin, representing the Mutual Life Insurance company, who had been in Daytona since last October, left Thursday afternoon for Asheville, N. C., Washington, D. C., New York and Detroit, Mich. Mrs. Griffin and daughter, who are still in the city, will join Mr. Griffin at St. Louis, Mo., in about three weeks' time and after a visit of about a month in that city, will return to the Pacific coast. Mr. and Mrs. Griffin have made many friends during their sojourn in the city who regret parting with them.

Imitation Good and Bad.

The instinct to imitate is, like most other instincts, highly serviceable. But it has to be kept under control Before we yield to it we ought to be sure that what we imitate is good. One of the most pitiful things in the world is to see people imitating what is unworthy under the impression that such imitation seems creditable.

GERMAN RAIDER AND ARMED ENGLISH SHIP SUNK

LONDON, March 25.—The German commerce raider, Grier, and the British armed merchant ship, Alcantara, were sunk in a battle in the North sea February 29, according to a recent announcement of the English admiralty. The British lost 70 officers and men. One hundred and fifteen Germans were captured.

Lyman the large two-story frame building at the corner of Ridgewood avenue and Main street, Kingston, is having a number of repairs and improvements made, including the replacing of the old wooden porch with one of cement.
